

ACADGILD

SESSION 1: INTRODUCTION

Assignment 2

1. Problem Statement

1. How many ways are there to call a function in R? – 2 (Build-in functions & User Defined functions)

2. Is the below statement true? – False

- The lazy evaluation of a function means, the argument is evaluated only if it is evaluated only if it is used inside the body of the function.

3. Mention true or false for below statements:

- Insights driven from descriptive analytics is not meaningful. - False
- The number of values in each Elements of a list, should be equal. - False
- The datasets are not stored in memory of the computer using R. - True
- Data frames and matrices are two dimensional however the array is multidimensional. - True